Dear :

RE:

We have your complaint of , and note that your employment terminated .

The Employment Standards Code states that claims must be filed with our Department by the employee within six (6) months after the expiration of the time provided for the payment of wages, that is, ten days after the date of termination of employment. Therefore, as more than six months have elapsed since the time limit outlined above, we are unable to assist you.

You may either obtain legal assistance or file your own claim through Small Claims Court.

Yours truly,

Employment Standards Officer
