Be sure to read the Important Information on the back of the Application for an Order of Possession form.

To complete sections 1, 2, 3 and 4 of the Application for an Order of Possession form, follow these instructions. The Residential Tenancies Branch will complete sections 5 and 6.

Please print all information.

1 Address of Rental Unit

Fill in the address of the rental unit, including city/town and postal code.

2 Landlord/Tenant Information

Fill in your name, or your agent's name, mailing address (including postal code) and daytime phone number. Do not use initials, full names only.

Fill in the name of each person (tenant, co-signer, guarantor) you are claiming against. Do not use initials, full names only. Give their present address, or mailing address (including postal code) and daytime phone number. Use additional pages if needed.

3 Reason for Application

Place a check mark (✓) in the boxes which best describe why the tenant was given a written notice to move. If none apply, place a check mark (✓) in the box beside Other and give your reason. Attach a copy of the notice, and any warnings, with the Application for an Order of Possession. The Branch may not be able to accept your application without copies of the relevant notices and warnings.

4 Claim

Place a check mark (✓) in the boxes to show your claim. Fill in the amount you are claiming and give details (attach additional pages if needed). If you do not give enough detail, the Branch may not be able to accept your claim. Remember to total up your claim.

Example	Amount	Details
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Rent	$1,000.00	Aug/02 $500 + Sept/02 $500
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Damages	$ 350.00	Replace living room window $200; repair master bedroom door $150

My total claim is:	$1,450.00	plus costs*

You can estimate for damages or cleaning, if you don't know the actual costs. You can reduce the estimated amount at the hearing, but you can only increase the amount you are claiming if the tenant agrees.

If claiming utility bills, only list the ones you may be responsible to pay (for example: an outstanding water bill applied to owner's property tax bill). If actual amounts are unknown, estimate the bill.

If claiming interest, place a check mark (✓) in the box beside Interest. The Residential Tenancies Branch will calculate any interest when making a decision on your claim.

Fill in the amount of the security deposit, if any, and the date you received it.

Costs: may include reasonable costs for filing, serving and proving this claim as well as the costs for obtaining and enforcing a writ of possession.

Finally, sign and date the Claim section.

Important Information

The Residential Tenancies Branch will hear this application under the authority of The Residential Tenancies Act.

Giving the tenant the Application for Order of Possession

A landlord must give this application by:

Cette information existe également en français.
Composez le 204-945-2476.

- ♦ handing it to the tenant; or
- ♦ handing it to an adult at the tenant’s home.

If the tenant doesn't come to the hearing, the Branch will ask the landlord to show that the tenant received this Application for an Order of Possession at least five days before the hearing. We'll accept a sworn declaration of service by the person who delivered the application.

If a landlord has made reasonable attempts to serve this application to the tenant but has not been able to, they may call the Residential Tenancies Branch at 204-726-6230 or toll-free at 1-800-656-8481 for information on other ways to serve the application or to reschedule the hearing.

What you should bring to the hearing

You should bring your original evidence to the hearing and two copies – one for the branch, one for the other party. If you are sending in a written response to a claim, you should also include two copies of any evidence.

Landlords and tenants may also bring witnesses to the hearing. If a witness cannot attend the hearing, a landlord or tenant may submit the witness's signed and dated written statement as evidence.

Examples of evidence:

- | | | |
|---|-----------------------|----------------------|
| 1. Condition Reports | 2. Tenancy Agreements | 3. Receipts/Invoices |
| 4. Photos | 5. Notices | 6. Video Tapes/CD’s |
| 7. Written statements from witnesses who can’t attend the hearing | | |

The Branch will keep your evidence until after the appeal period ends.

What if I can’t come to the hearing?

If you can’t come to the branch, there are other ways you can still take part in the hearing. You can send a person to represent you (make sure they bring your evidence with them and written permission from you authorizing them to represent you at the hearing), send in a written submission to the branch (this must be received by noon the day before the hearing), or where reasonable, you can ask to take part in the hearing by teleconference.

What happens if you don’t take part in the hearing?

If you don’t come to the branch or take part in another way, the hearing may be held without you.

If a person does not take part in the hearing, we may make a decision without you. If you do not take part in the hearing and the Branch grants an Order of Possession for Non-Payment of Rent, you will need leave to appeal.

This means that if either a landlord or a tenant doesn’t take part in the hearing, they have to get “permission”, or leave to appeal the Order of Possession for Non-Payment of Rent, from the Residential Tenancies Commission to appeal the order.

If someone wants to apply for leave to appeal, they must take their evidence, showing why they could not take part in the hearing, to the Commission within the appeal deadline, and pay a filing fee. Leave to appeal may be granted if:

- the person can show why they were reasonably unable to take part in the hearing, or
- they can show that the order was based on false or misleading information.

If leave is granted, the person doesn’t have to pay another filing fee to appeal the order.

Mediation

Mediation is a service the Branch offers for people who want to try to settle an application without a hearing. Mediation is a confidential process that can take place in meetings, conference calls or separate telephone conversations. The Branch encourages people to try mediation, but no one is required to do so.

Public Record

When the Residential Tenancies Branch holds a hearing, or makes a determination, it issues an Order stating the decision. This Order is a matter of public record. Mediated agreements are confidential and not a matter of public record.
